

NARRATIVE

Iroquois County is, physically, the third largest county in the State of Illinois. The county is located in the east central portion of the state. Kankakee borders the county on the north, Ford and Livingston on the west, Vermilion on the South with Newton and Benton counties of Indiana on the east. Running through the western end of the county in a northeast to southwest direction is Interstate 57. Iroquois County is thirty-five miles long by thirty-two miles wide containing 1,120 square miles. Watseka, the county seat is located just east of the center of the county. Total population for Iroquois County from the 1990 census is 30,787. There are twenty-one cities and villages within the county. Populations range from a low of 142 in the Village of Papineau to a population of 5,424 in the City of Watseka. Twenty-six townships are located in the county with populations ranging from Milks Grove with 221 to Middleport with 4,653. Rural townships have a total population of 11,689 with the remaining 19,098 in the cities and villages.

Much of Iroquois County is made up of agricultural land with the primary products of corn and soybeans. Major employers are light industry, agriculture and supportive businesses including education, health care and government.

Iroquois County 911 ETSB was established and authorized by the Iroquois County Board. The board consists of twelve appointed members. Board representation consists of ten members from Fire, EMS and law enforcement, one citizen at large and one county board member .

There are twelve Police Departments, one State Police District office and one Sheriff's Department providing law enforcement. Police departments range in size of part-time in the villages of Ashkum, Clifton, and Woodland to a size of 11 full-time and 4 part-time officers in Watseka. Iroquois County Sheriff's Police is staffed with 16 full-time merit deputies and one records clerk.

There are two full-time dispatch centers operating in Iroquois County. The City of Watseka employs with 5 full-time and 3 part-time Telecommunicators. Iroquois County Sheriff's Police employs 5 full-time Telecommunicators. Both dispatch centers operate on a twenty-four hour/365 day system.

A new dual dispatch facility was constructed at 1001 East Grant Street, Watseka, Illinois 60970. It is located in the Iroquois County Administrative Center Building. This facility houses both the Sheriff's and Watseka dispatch operations. To insure continued operations the facility has been equipped with a 60 kW back-up generator and uninterruptable power supplies (UPS) have been installed on all electronic equipment. The facility has been constructed with concrete block walls, a poured concrete roof and heavy-duty steel doors. There are not any outside windows. Interior windows have been installed with bullet resistant glass. Each dispatch section has a secure walk up entrance with bullet resistant windows and a security document pass-through. All doors remain locked and have electronic door strikes installed to allow for remote operation. The communications equipment room is in plain view of the on duty Telecommunicators and is secured at all times. Placement of the mechanical room allows for maintenance without entering the secure area of the dispatch section. Each dispatch section has an independent climate control and heat pump that will allow for continued operation in case of malfunction or control problem. Each dispatch section has a kitchenette and restroom facilities located within the security of the dispatch facility. The entry foyer and 911 coordinator's office are located in front of the secured dispatch area.

The City of Watseka (Watsaka) and Sheriff of Iroquois County (Sheriff) have entered into written agreements with Iroquois County 911 ETSB to provide personnel to operate the dual dispatch facility. The ETSB has retained the control and direction of all 911 matters including policies and standards of operation. The ETSB has provided the necessary equipment and physical structure for operations of the dispatch facility. Watseka and Sheriff will provide dispatch personnel and other employee related expenses to operate the dual dispatch center. They will also retain the day to day control including the hiring, firing and other disciplinary matters.

The radio equipment operates in the VHF and UHF band and has multi channel capabilities. This allows for required local channels and the installation of regional channels of surrounding agencies both intrastate and interstate. Additional auxiliary receivers are installed allowing for the dispatch facilities to monitor the surrounding counties' local channels.

All agencies located in the Iroquois County will have the availability of being directly dispatched from the multiple paging towers. The towers are located throughout the county allowing reliable, overlapping and redundant paging coverage. Other channels allow for redundant communications for all emergency agencies. Any agencies located adjacent to or partly in the county will use call transfer to the responsible adjacent PSAP. Iroquois County is surrounded on all sides by existing enhanced 911 systems allowing for effortless transfer of emergency calls. Fire, EMS, and Law Enforcement agencies are presently serving all areas of the county. Disputed service areas or "no mans land" do not exist, and all areas have been assigned an ESN. Agreements between the ETSB and the parties involved including surrounding counties have been signed. System maps of service areas for Law Enforcement, EMS, Fire and telephone exchanges have been made and are included.

Ameritech, GTE and Frontier-Inland operate thirty-two telephone exchanges within Iroquois County. GTE is split into GTE-North and GTE-South. GTE- North consists of central offices located in Iroquois County in the Villages of Thawville, Ashkum, Buckley, Loda, Martinton, Beaverville, Donovan and Sheldon. One central office is located in Kankakee County for the Village of Chebanse. Ford County central offices include the Villages of Cabery, Piper City, Roberts and Paxton. GTE-South operates central offices for the communities of Danforth, Cissna Park, Wellington, Stockland, Milford, and Woodland. Rankin, East Lynn, Hoopeston and Cheneyville have their central offices located in Vermilion County. Inland/Frontier has one central office located in Kempton (Livingston County). Ameritech has four central offices located in Iroquois County serving the communities of Gilman, Onarga, Crescent City, and Watseka. Herscher, St Anne and Momence central offices are located in Kankakee County. Several exchanges also cover areas in adjoining counties. A friendly lawsuit against Ameritech and GTE has been filed in Iroquois County Circuit Court. Agreements have been signed by the parties involved to secure the required data.

As noted earlier, financing the system will include the Sheriff and Watseka providing telecommunications personnel. They will also provide for all non-911 related costs including administrative lines, forms and LEADS costs. The ETSB is collecting a $2.00 surcharge, which began in June of 1995. Monthly surcharges average $30,000.00. The ETSB will continue to pay the labor and office costs of the 911 Coordinator and all related 911 costs consistent with the agreements. At this level of financing the ETSB anticipates approximately four to six thousand dollars per month to be held in reserve for future costs and upgrading. A list of telephone related costs from the respective telephone system providers are attached.

When the enhanced system comes to the testing stage, the ETSB will conduct public education forums in the use and functions of the system. Training of Telecommunicators will insure that they will meet the standards. Continuing education on areas of responsibilities and standard operating procedures will be held. This will also include initial and ongoing training of mandated TTY use and operations every six months. TTY's with auto detection and notification to the Telecommunicators are built into the main answering telephone sets, backup units and portable units. Training will meet local, state and federal requirements and will also be reviewed every six months or less to insure that training is accurate and appropriate.

City type rural addressing was established in May 1997. The US Postal Service, the Iroquois County Board and telephone companies have approved the addressing system. The Master Street Address Guide (MSAG) is continually updated. All new construction in Iroquois County is required to have a building permit. Permits are only issued with a correct city type rural address. All addresses are standard and will be matched against the MSAG for proper abbreviations and spelling. The Iroquois County Zoning Office will accept subdivisions after a review for duplication of street names or like sounding street names. All roads have road signs provided. Due to a few changes in addressing, several signs required updating and have been replaced by the Iroquois County Highway Department. Iroquois County Zoning requires all subdivisions to install and maintain street signs. See attached statement from the Superintendent of Highways, and Township Road Commissioners of Iroquois County verifying that such signage is in place.

Ameritech will operate the database along with the router. The router will have the same capabilities for this system as the surrounding systems. Errors, unfounds and database updates will be done on a daily basis.

All residents of Iroquois County will have E-9-1-1 service. The residents of the Village of Chebanse will continue to be routed to Kankakee County as per ICC Document Number 93-0060. The Iroquois County residents outside of the Village limits will be served by Iroquois County PSAP. The exchanges of Kempton (12 phones); Piper City (24 phones); Paxton (15 phones) and Roberts (0 phones) will be routed to a Ford County PSAP as per agreement attached. The exchanges of Rankin (10 phones); East Lynn (47 phones); Hoopeston (45 phones); and Cheneyville (24 phones) will be routed to a Vermilion County PSAP as per agreement attached. The exchange of Cabery (0 phones) will be routed to a Kankakee County PSAP as per agreement attached. The exchange of Cullom (5 phones) will be routed to a Livingston County PSAP as per agreement attached. Each of these phone customers has been notified via United States Postal, Registered Mail, Return Receipt, a sample copy of said notice informing them of the routing for their phone service connection is attached.

Equipment including CAD, software and hardware installed in this system meets the requirements for phase I of the wireless requirements. A letter is on file with the Illinois Commerce Commission indicating the willingness of Iroquois County to answer 911 cellular calls. Wireless providers will be permitted to direct 911 wireless calls to the Iroquois County system 6 months after the county goes on line. All wireless providers will work with the Iroquois County ETSB to insure proper installation and operation.

By providing the dual dispatch operation, the Sheriff handles all areas of the county outside the City limits of Watseka and also provides for back-up overflow for Watseka. Watseka is the primary location for 911 service within the City limits of Watseka and provides for overflow back up for the Sheriff. Both centers have two telephone answering positions with CAD. Two additional telephone-answering positions are located at the Iroquois County Detention Center. The Detention Center is located at 550 South 10th Street, Watseka, IL. This is a separate structure from the dual dispatch facility and has all of the main 911 lines from the Sheriff and Watseka dispatch centers that duplicate the operations of each answering position. A remote switch can activate the two Detention Center positions when required. Any line that would ring at the Detention Center also is ringing at the Detention Center or Watseka main answering positions. By this configuration, all 911 calls answered at a remote site will be answered by trained telecommunicators. The Detention Center answering positions will be used if there is a major emergency or evacuation of the dual dispatch facility that would put the lives of the telecommunications at risk, such as gas or hazard materials leak or a bomb threat. To insure redundancy, the system provides for an additional manned back up located at a Kankakee County PSAP. Kankakee County has agreed to be used as a backup if the Watseka Ameritech Central office has a catastrophic failure or fire. The backup would be if all 911 lines of to the Detention Center, 911 Center and City of Watseka failed or became isolated. Ameritech will install a switch to provide for the transferring and or re-directing all 911 calls to the Kankakee County PSAP (see attached interagency agreement between "Iroquois" and "Kankakee"). Diversity is also addressed on all 911 lines between the Watseka Central office and the dual dispatch facility and Detention Center to limit the chance of total loss of service resulting from a cut of service lines. Both PSAP's and the Detention Center answering positions have Enhanced ANI/ALI capabilities, proper logging recording and TTY capabilities. Kankakee County meets all of the enhanced requirements.

Network diagrams have been provided by Ameritech and have been reviewed

The Iroquois County ETSB, in cooperation with the involved emergency providers will establish standard operating guidelines (SOG's) and written procedures (SOP's) for call handling requirements under part 725. Equipment failure, health and/or physical hazards, call tracing and line trouble have been included in the pre-plan. Participants will be instructed and trained on the procedures and plans prior to going on line. Call boxes will be located to assist in handling 911 emergency calls when central office isolation occurs. Iroquois County ETSB has written a pre-plan for the call boxes and will train local emergency responders in proper handling and procedures to transfer and dispatch the information to the correct emergency responding agency. This training will be ongoing to insure up to date procedures and techniques.

Testing prior to going on line will be done to meet or exceed all requirements by the ICC and part 725. A test plan has been developed. All testing will be done and continued until the ETSB has insured a quality system exists prior to going online.

Public information and education will be by use of full-length articles in local papers and presentations at public organizations. Flyers will be mailed with local in utility bills. Education will be done in the schools for grade school children in the proper use and procedures for placing an emergency 911 call.

The Iroquois County Emergency Telephone System Board will commence full online operations during the third quarter of 2000.
